

Funding Programme for Special Master Courses in Germany

What are the objectives of the funding programme?

This programme is designed to qualify future leaders and change agents. It is for young professionals with an academic background in Politics, Law, Economics and Administration as well as a range of other disciplines such as the Natural and Engineering Sciences.

What is the Target group?

First-class graduates with a university degree (Bachelor or equivalent) who want to contribute to the social and economic development of their home countries. The majority of the programmes require at least two years of job experience. Please check the individual requirements of the study courses.

What does the package include?

The scholarships are for two-year Master courses (in some cases shorter) at a range of carefully selected study programs at prestigious German institutions of Higher Education. The majority of these courses are taught in English. The scholarship holders will be offered special tutoring at their host institutions. Furthermore, there is the opportunity of networking events with participants from other special Master courses. Regardless of the language of instruction, all scholars will receive a German language training prior to their studies.
