Travel Grants available!

To students wishing to participate in the conference

The Role of Libraries in Freedom of Expression, Tolerance and Access to Information

the Goethe-Institut in Cairo is providing travel grants. You may apply by sending in a text in which you elaborate on your ideas on the role which you intend to play when you start your professional career as a trained librarian.

The conference will take place at the Bibliotheca Alexandrina from 7th until 9th October 2008. For detailed information please check <http://www.bibalex.org/IFLA-libraries-tolerance08>

The travel grant covers

- participation fee
- hotel accommodation in Alexandria
- costs for a round-trip train or bus ticket to Alexandria

Who can apply?

The invitation is open to all students of Library and Information Science at an Egyptian University.

How to apply:

Please send your essay of not more than 2.000 characters to

Goethe-Institut Kairo

Mrs Abier Megahed

megahed@cairo.goethe.org or fax: +2-2575 98 77

You may write in Arabic or in English. The deadline is 23rd September 2008. Please include your name and contact details and state at which university you are enrolled. The Goethe-Institut together with Egyptian library professionals will select the happy winners. This choice cannot be disputed.
