

Sixth Arab Reform Conference
“The Arab World: Present and Future”
1-3 March 2009

In continuation of the first Arab Reform Conference in March 2004, which produced the Alexandria Declaration, the Arab Reform Forum is organizing the 6th conference in this series under the title “The Arab World: Present and Future”, to be held in March 2009. The conference will encompass many panels such as: a changing Arab World in a changing planet; regional interactions; the citizen, the state and society; and culture and media in the Arab world. Each panel will discuss various sub-topics such as the Arab World between fundamentalists and modernization, the impact of the global financial crisis on the Arab World, the status of Arab women in Arab societies, and the role of the League of Arab States in governing the regional interactions.
