

Children's Summer Program (8-11 years)

A Journey in the Human Body- Young Scientists

Age: 8-11 years

Children will learn about human body organs, and their functions through exciting experiments and games.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.

For reservation, please contact the Children's Library Reference Desk:

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Amazing Facts- Young Scientists

Age: 8-11 years

Through several exciting experiments, games, and books, children will learn several facts on wind, air, water, sound, light, and mass of heavy bodies.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Facts on Universe and Space- Young Scientists

Age: 8-11 years

Children will discover secrets of the universe, space, and motion of planets and stars through a series of activities and stimulating experiments.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

The Strongest Tree (Fun with Science)

Age: 9-11

The children will learn secrets of the strongest tree through "Fun with Science Program", which aims to explain and simplify scientific concepts, and conduct scientific experiments in a fun and exciting manner.

Reservation starts one day prior to the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Discover Your World

Age: 9-11 years

Children will learn how to read maps, and discover the world through exciting electronic games, earth models, and puzzles.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Did you Know that...

Age: 8-11 years

Through this program, children will gain knowledge and learn several exciting information.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Editor-in-Chief

Arabic Magazine

Age:9-11 years

Children, who love press and enjoy team work, will participate in editing an Arabic magazine, either by creative writing or drawing.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Editor-in-Chief

English Magazine

Age: 9-11 years

Children, who love press and enjoy team work, will participate in editing an English magazine, either by creative writing or drawing.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Editor-in-Chief

French Magazine

Age:8-11 years

Children, who love press and enjoy team work, will participate in editing a French magazine, either by creative writing or drawing.

Reservation starts one day prior to the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

My Book: Digital and Printed

Age: 8-11 years

Children will learn the difference between digital and printed books, how books are printed, in addition to different sources of knowledge.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

“Research Skills” Program

Age: 9-11 years

Participants will learn how to prepare a research paper using different research sources, and how to present it individually or as part of a team.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

“Behaviors” Workshop

Age: 9-11 years

Participants will learn good values and habits compared to bad habits and their negative impact on the society.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Story Telling

Age: 8-11 years

Children will enjoy story telling through puppet shows and shadow puppetry using modern techniques.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Young Tourists

Age: 8-11 years

Children, who are fond of antiquities, will tour the BA Antiquities Museum to learn about the Pharaonic and Roman history through drawing, research, and other activities.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Culturama Presentations

Age: 8-11 years

Children will go on a journey through different ages to explore Egypt history and learn about Egyptian landmarks and great kings.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

“Art”

Age: 8-11 years

Participants will learn facts about art and renowned artists, such as Leonardo da Vinci and Pablo Picasso. They will learn how to appreciate arts as means of self-expression.

Registration of candidates will depend on test results.

Tests are conducted from 16/05 to 17/06. Accepted candidates will be notified by phone.

First Course

Age: 8-9 years

Computer courses for children including (IT, Windows, Word, Powerpoint)

Reservation starts one week before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration. For registration, please bring a copy of the birth certificate, copy of the annual membership card, and fill in the application form.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Second Course

Age: 10 years

Computer courses for children including (IT, Windows, Word, Powerpoint)

Reservation starts one week before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration. For registration, please bring a copy of the birth certificate, copy of the annual membership card, and fill in the application form.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Third Course

Age: 11 years

Computer courses for children including (IT, Windows, Word, Powerpoint)

Reservation starts one week before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration. For registration, please bring a copy of the birth certificate, copy of the annual membership card, and fill in the application form.

Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Poetry and Recital Workshop

Age: 8-11 years

The workshop is offered for poetry lovers and children who want to develop their recital skills of colloquial and classic poetry, and learn about different schools of poetry.

Registration of candidates will depend on test results.

Tests are conducted on 6/6, 8/6, 13/6, 15/6, from 9:00 to 11:00 am. Accepted candidates will be notified by phone.

Friends of the Children's Library

Age: 8-11 years

Participants will learn how to put books on the shelves and will get to know about different BA departments, and how to help users.

Interested candidates will undergo a test to assess their general knowledge, interview, and a training period.

Tests will be held in two groups, the first on 7-8 June from 9:30 to 14:30 hrs., and the second on 21-22 June from 9:30 to 14:30 hrs. Reservation for the first group tests will start from 15/5 to 6/6, and the second group will start from 7/6 to 20/6.

Make your Own Doll

Age: 8-11 years

Children will get the chance to freely express their own characters and surroundings using simple material to make their own dolls.

Reservation starts half an hour before the activity, free of charge. Priority is given to early registration.
Phone: 4839999 Extension: 1628

Theatrical Performance

Age: 8-11 years

Talented candidates, who are fond of acting and imitation, will have the opportunity to participate in the Children's Library theatrical performance at the end of the Summer activities.

Tests will be held on 13/6, 14/6, 16/6, 17/6 from 12:00 to 14:00 hrs.
Reservation will take place half an hour before the tests.

Parents Meeting

The Children's Library organizes a monthly meeting with parents to hear their suggestions and complaints, and to introduce the Library's different departments and activities to them.

Reservation will start a week before the meeting.