Invitation

The Bibliotheca Alexandrina cordially invites you to the Eleventh Alexandrina International Book Fair, 26 March – 7 April 2015, in cooperation with the Egyptian Publishers Association.

The Book Fair earned a place among the world's top book fairs by being a cultural center in Alexandria; attracting many distinguished publishing houses, and holding cultural events in which renowned intellectuals took part.

This is in line with the BA's mission to raise awareness among all members of society, specifically the youth; to promote the needful impact of reading for different generations and create opportunities for dialogue between publishers, readers and writers.

We look forward to your participation in this important cultural event, taking into consideration that all requirements and facilities will be provided to ensure the success of the Book Fair, and to pursue the cultural role that the Library of Alexandria has played throughout the ages.

Looking forward to receiving your confirmation of participation.

Sincerely,

Ismail Serageldin

Director,
Bibliotheca Alexandrina

Assem Shalaby

President,
Egyptian Publishers Association
