

Regulations of The Woman Film Festival

1. The Audio-Visual Development Foundation CADRE organizes the Woman Film Festival annually from March 8 (International Woman Day) to March 16 (Egyptian Woman Day). The 1st festival will be held in 2007.
2. The festival aims to protect human rights and contribute to the efforts to achieve total equality between women and men.
3. The 1st session will take place simultaneously at the Artistic Creativity Centre on the Cairo Opera House grounds in cooperation with the Cultural Development Fund (Ministry of Culture) and at the Auditorium Hall of the Bibliotheca Alexandrina in cooperation with the Arts Centre of the Bibliotheca.
4. The maximum number of hours of the festival programmes is eight hours a day: 12:00 noon to 2:00 pm, 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm, 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm, 8:30 pm to 10:30 pm.
5. The festival screens films of various formats, durations, and genres (fiction, documentary, animation). The official program screens one feature film from each of the European Union member states.
6. All screenings are for adults only and free of charge.
7. Each film in the festival will be screened twice.
8. The festival publishes: a poster, a programme brochure, a catalogue and a press file on the festival.
9. The festival may involve: publishing books, holding exhibitions, organising conferences after the screenings and organising workshops and seminars.
10. All the festival publications are not for sale.
11. All the festival publications are in Arabic and English or French.
12. The Board of Trustees of CADRE is the Presidential Board of the festival, and it appoints the director. The director will be responsible for the implementation of these regulations and will be the only official spokesperson for the festival, and his nominations for the membership of the executive committee of the festival will have to be approved by the board.
13. The Board of Trustees of CADRE and its committees will nominate films to the festival director.
14. The director of the festival is the only one responsible for the selection of films and all the festival programmes.

15. The programme of the festival will be announced one month before the opening day.
