

BIBLIOTHECA ALEXANDRINA
Arts and Multimedia Library

August 2008

The Queen "Elizabeth II"

Directed by Stephen Frears

A docudrama daring us to reconsider our preconceived views of the British Royal Family. The film offers a rare glimpse at the humanity behind a woman who is known around the world and yet hardly known at all.

The film won the Oscar for best performance.

DVD 780 Motion Picture (103 minutes) (2006)

Thursday 7 August 2008
4:00 pm

Iraq for Sale: The War Profiteers

Directed by Robert Greenwald

A political spectrum that gives you a glimpse on what is going on in Iraq. It uncovers ulterior motives: why the war started and how many Americans and Iraqi civilians die no matter which side claims victory.

DVD 788 Documentary (75 minutes) (2006)

Thursday 14 August 2008
4:00 pm

The Great Clown

Directed by Youssef Chahine

A Hilarious comedy which exposes the bourgeois society in Egypt in the mid-twentieth century and examines the interactions between love, work and money.

DVD 778 Motion Picture (85 minutes) (1952)

Thursday 21 August 2008
4:00 pm

Höstsonaten

Directed by Ingmar Bergman

The film shows the uneasy encounter of a mother and a daughter who reunite after seven years, in an attempt to overcome their differences.

The film was nominated for 2 Oscars; Best Actress: (Ingrid Bergman) and Best Writing, Screenplay Written Directly for the Screen.

DVD 647 Motion Picture (90 minutes) (1978)

Thursday 28 August 2008
4:00 pm