

A new “Greatest of the Directors of Craftsmen”
(High Priest of the Path at Memphis) from Mit-Rahinah

Basem Samir el-Sharkawy

---

Memphis findings, continuously, add more to our historical and archeological knowledge, one of the interesting objects recovered during 1987 season of the EAO's excavation at the site of ancient Memphis (Mit-Rahinah) is the inscribed small limestone object, which was in Kom el-Fakhry in the area of Saqiet el-Khateeb and Muslims cemetery.

The recent study depends on an unpublished excavation report made by the inspectors of EAO at Mit-Rahinah.