

Information literacy as a 21st Century competence and its importance for the future

Barbie E. Keiser
UNESCO Training the trainer workshop
Bibliotheca Alexandrina
November 4, 2008

[Beyond traditional literacy]

- Reading
- Information
- Other?

[Benefits of information literacy]

- Society/nation
- Organization/institution
- Individual

[Importance of lifelong learning]

- Where are you on the information continuum?
 - In relation to others?
 - Within your community?
 - Within your institution/organization?
 - Among colleagues/other information professionals?
- Keeping up with it all
 - Strategies
 - Tools you can use

[What role can you play?]

- What do you know that others don't?
 - KSAs of the information professional
- What do you need to know about others so that you can help them improve their abilities vis-à-vis information literacy?
 - Educator, trainer, facilitator, advisor, guidance provider...

[Why this workshop?]

- Purpose and vision
- Relationship with other TTT workshops
 - Creating a community
- Agenda for today and beyond
 - Collaborating on regional/country projects

[Thank you!]

- Feel free to be in touch...
- Barbie E. Keiser
- barbieelene@att.net
- bkeiser1@jhu.edu