

UNESCO "TRAINING-THE-TRAINERS" IN INFORMATION LITERACY WORKSHOP

4–6, November 2008

Alexandria, Egypt

www.bibalex.org/TTTworkshop

Delegates Hall (Conference Center)
Nobel Room & Gad Rausing Auditorium (Main Building)

Co-organized and hosted by the Bibliotheca Alexandrina (BA) Library Sector in Collaboration with the UNESCO Information For All Program (IFAP)

Sponsored by the Petroleum Institute (Abu Dhabi, UAE), Elsevier, DocInfo-Lims, and EBSCO Publishing

Program

Tuesday, 4 November 2008

08:30 am — 09:00 am	Welcome & Registration
09:00 am — 10:00 am	Opening session Delegates Hall Welcome address Sohair Wastawy (Chief Librarian, Bibliotheca Alexandrina, Egypt) Introduction to the 'Training-The-Trainers in IL' workshops & IFAP Forest Woody Horton, Jr. (International Library and Information Consultant; UNESCO-IFAP Consultant, USA) Information literacy as a 21st Century competence and its importance for the future Barbie Keiser (IRM consultant, USA; workshop content coordinator)
10:00 am — 11:30 am	Session 1 Delegates Hall Theory-based, practical strategies for teaching information literacy Caroline Stern (Professor, Department of Languages and Literature, Ferris State University, USA)
11:30 am — 11:45 am	Break -- Delegates Hall

11:45 am — 01:45 pm	Session 2 Delegates Hall Information Literacy standards & models Vanessa Middleton (Associate Head Librarian, Petroleum Institute, UAE)
01:45 pm — 03:15 pm	Lunch (BA invitation) -- Greco-Roman Restaurant, Conference Center
03:15 pm — 04:45 pm	Session 3 (includes a video conference) Delegates Hall The importance of information literacy and lifelong learning: Thirteen years after the public Internet starts, what can we expect in the next 13? Richard Sweeney (University Librarian, New Jersey Institute of Technology, USA)
04:45 pm — 05:00 pm	Break -- Nobel Room
05:00 pm — 06:30 pm	Session 4 (practical session & workgroups) Nobel Room & Gad Rausing Auditorium Demand for information literacy & importance of lifelong learning in Egypt & the Middle East region: trainee analysis, brainstorming, and discussions (with case studies) Engy Fahmy and Nermin Rifaat (Library of the American University of Cairo, Egypt)

Wednesday 5 November 2008

09:00 am — 10:00 am	Session 5 Delegates Hall Researching the Middle East: How to search and evaluate Arabic Open Source websites and databases Engy Fahmy and Nermin Rifaat
10:00 am — 11:30 am	Session 6 Delegates Hall Designing an information literacy training program: An introduction to strategic planning and purposeful advocacy Barbie Keiser
11:30 am — 11:45 am	Break -- Delegates Hall
11:45 am — 01:45 pm	Session 7 Delegates Hall Using a focus group to assess real information literacy needs Richard Sweeney
01:45 pm — 02:10 pm	Session 8 Delegates Hall The importance of scholarly information in the research process: Special focus on Egypt and the ME Said Taha (Regional Director, MEA, Turkey and Iran, Elsevier)

02:10 pm — 03:30 pm	Break -- free time for lunch
03:30 pm — 05:00 pm	Session 9 (practical session and workgroups) Delegates Hall Strategies for implementing successful IL action plans Barbie Keiser
05:00 pm — 05:15 pm	Break -- Nobel Room
05:15 pm — 06:30 pm	Session 10 (practical session & workgroups) Nobel Room & Gad Rausing Auditorium Designing information literacy training programs for the Middle East region: methods & aspects of application/implementation in Egypt & the region (success stories & future action plans/programs) Vanessa Middleton

Thursday 6 November 2008

09:00 am — 10:00 am	Session 11 Delegates Hall Designing an information literacy training program: Principles & methods of assessment and measuring outcomes Caroline Stern
10:00 am — 11:45 am	Session 12 Delegates Hall Social networking and Web 2.0 in information literacy Joan Petit and Amanda Click (American University of Cairo, Egypt)
11:45 am — 12:00 pm	Session 13 Delegates Hall EBSCO Presentation: Briefing on EBSCO online services & resources Mohamed Ibrahim Khalil (Regional Sales Manager – North Africa, EBSCO Publishing)
12:00 pm — 12:15 pm	Break -- Nobel Room
12:15 pm — 01:45 pm	Session 14 (practical session & workgroups) Nobel Room & Gad Rausing Auditorium Designing information literacy training programs for the Middle East region: defining best marketing & assessment tools for the region (success stories & future plans) Caroline Stern and Vanessa Middleton
01:45 pm — 03:00 pm	Break -- free time for lunch

03:00 pm — 04:30 pm	Session 15 (practical session & workgroups) Delegates Hall Workgroups final reporting/ wrap up (crystallization of regional action plans & programs; highlighting regional collaborative efforts) Barbie Keiser
04:30 pm — 05:30 pm	Session 16 Delegates Hall Closing session: wrap up, conclusions, evaluation, and “next steps,” followed by certificate presentation Forest Woody Horton, Jr. and Sohair Wastawy
05:30 pm — 06:30 pm	Library Tour Tour of the Bibliotheca Alexandrina
