

The Beacon for Freedom of Expression Conference 2004

The followings are links to organizations supporting the freedom of Expression

- IFLA - International Federation of Library Associations.
- IFLA, representing the world forum for library organizations and national libraries, launched FAIFE - Committee on Freedom of Expression and Access to Information in 1997. FAIFE, defending and enhancing freedom of expression and free access to information, also monitoring and reporting on the world status of intellectual freedom.
- IFEX, International Freedom of Expression eXchange currently counting 54 members on all continents, established in 1992, represents the main global network of freedom of expression organizations, daily monitoring and reporting on freedom of expression abuses world wide. www.ifex.org
- The Library of Alexandria - www.bibalex.org
- Egyptian Human Rights Organization, www.eohr.org
- Cairo Institute for Human Rights Studies, www.cihrs.org
- UNESCO's Division of Human Rights, Democracy, Peace & Tolerance will represent an invaluable supporter of this project, expected to play a more active role after the Norwegian database has been presented to the new library of Alexandria , and the project continues as a joint international venture. www.unesco.org
- Committee to Protect Journalists, www.cpj.org
- International PEN, www.internatpen.org
- Writers in Prison Committee at www.internatpen.org
- Article 19, www.article19.org
- World Press Freedom Committee, www.wpfc.org
- World Association of Newspapers, www.wan-press.org
- International Press Institute, www.freemedia.at
- UN - Freedom of Opinion and Expression, www.un.org/
- ALA Office for Intellectual Freedom, www.ala.org
- Center for Media Freedom in the Middle East and North Africa , www.cmfmna.org/
- Reporters sans frontiers, www.rsf.fr
- World View Rights, www.worldviewrights.org
- Human Rights Watch, www.hrw.org/
- Amnesty International, www.amnesty.org/