

ḥwn ntry, iw^ḥw nhḥ*: Some ‘Astronomical’ Hieroglyphs and their Cosmographic and Calligraphic Significance

Amanda Alice Maravelia

In the course of time the ancient Egyptian hieroglyphic script was substantially transformed, as is the case for every other scripture, due to various socio-culture and linguistic reasons. The purpose in this paper is to discuss the astronomical and cosmographic semantics of certain hieroglyphic signs that depict the sky–goddess Nut.
